Re: Selection of new commissioner

On Friday, July 26, 2024, the Commission will convene at 10:30 in Room 309 of the State Capitol to interview applicants and select a Commissioner to replace Commissioner Solimon, whose term expires on August 9, 2024. This special commission meeting will follow a brief, regular meeting that will run from 9:00am to 10:30am, also in Room 309.

I. Solicitation of applicants and invitations for interviews

In May and June 2024, the Commission solicited applications for State Ethics Commissioner. To this end, the Commission purchased advertising in the Albuquerque Journal, the Las Cruces Sun News, the Farmington Daily Times, the New Mexico State Bar Bulletin, and Joe Monahan's political blog. The Commission also placed public service announcement radio advertisements around the state. In response to its advertising efforts and solicitations, the Commission received 22 applications. Commission staff reviewed the applications for completeness and the applicants' eligibility under NMSA 1978, Section 10-16G-4 (2019), which provides qualification criteria. Based on that review, I selected seven applicants for the Commission to interview and from which to select the next Republican Commissioner.

II. Selection procedure for the next Republican Commissioner

In 2019, the four legislatively appointed Commissioners (then Commissioners Bluestone, Carruthers, Villanueva, and Williams) utilized a special selection procedure to select the remaining two Commissioners (Commissioners Baker and Solimon). I recommend the Commission use the same procedure for the selection of the next Republican Commissioner. The procedure is as follows:

1. During each interview, the applicants are asked the same set of questions. See Section III, infra, Sample Questions. The applicants receive the sample questions before the interview, as part of the publicly available special meeting materials. The applicants do not observe the interviews of other applicants.
2. After the completion of the interviews, each of the four legislatively appointed Commissioners notes their respective preference ranking for each candidate, 1 through 7, on a form created for this purpose. See Preference Ranking Form, infra. The number (1) indicates the most preferred candidate. Only legislatively appointed Commissioners may submit preference rankings.

3. At the conclusion of all interviews and after each Commissioner completes their respective preference ranking, I collect the rankings and then aggregate the preference rankings corresponding to each applicant. The applicant with the lowest number will be selected.
4. In the event of a tie, the applicant with the greatest number of 1 values will be chosen. If two applicants have the same number of 1 values, then the applicant with the greatest number of 2 values will be chosen. If, at that point, the tie is not broken, I will inform the entire Commission, who will then reconsider and revote or otherwise take appropriate action.
5. After making the determination, I will communicate the results to Chair Lang, who will announce the Commission's selection. In Chair Lang's absence, I can announce the Commission's selection and inform the applicants. Staff will work on getting an oath of office executed and filed with the Secretary of State.

II. Reasons for this selection procedure

The Commission utilized this procedure to select applicants for the final two seats of the State Ethics Commission in 2019 and then for the Commission's two appointments to the Citizen's Redistricting Committee in 2021. Several reasons support the procedure.

1. The four legislatively appointed Commissioners must all concur on the selection. See NMSA 1978, § 10-16G-3(H) (2019) ("No action shall be taken by the commission unless at least four members, including at least two members of the largest political party in the state and two members of the second largest political party in the state, concur."). Abiding by the outcome of the selection process enables the four legislatively appointed Commissioners to concur on a selection, even if the Commissioners do not agree on which applicant is most preferred.
2. Under the Open Meetings Act, the Commissioners may not interview the candidates and then retreat to a closed meeting to deliberate privately. The selection of a State Ethics Commissioner does not fall within the exception to open meetings for "limited personnel matters," because Commissioners are not public employees. See NMSA 1978, § 10-15-1(H)(2) (2013). Nor does any other exception to the statutory open meetings requirement apply. See NMSA 1978, § 10-15-1(H) (2013). The selection process enables the Commission to make a decision without discussing in public the merits and demerits of particular applicants.
3. The selection process gives equal weight to each Commissioner's individual preferences.

III. Sample Questions

- Can you please describe your professional background and how it has prepared you for a role on the State Ethics Commission?
- What experience do you have in public service or working with governmental organizations?
- Can you provide an example of a time when you had to handle an ethical dilemma in your professional career? How did you address it?
- What motivates you to serve on the State Ethics Commission?
- How would you handle a situation where a close friend or colleague was involved in a matter involving the Commission?
- What steps would you take to remain unbiased in your role as a Commissioner?
- What do you believe are the core principles of ethical behavior in public service, and how do you view the relationship between those core principles and the law the Commission is charged to interpret and enforce?

Dear Members of the Ethics Commission,

I am writing to express my interest in the position of Ethics Commissioner. As a dedicated and long-term registered voter who has maintained consistent party affiliation for over 30 years, I am deeply committed to upholding ethical standards within our governance structures.

With extensive experience serving on various boards and commissions, I have developed a profound understanding of the responsibilities and ethical considerations crucial to such roles. For example, I have had the privilege to serve on a number of boards that I have listed, where I contributed to best of my ability and have considered myself a good board member willing to put in the work necessary to achieve the desired goals.

In my professional capacity as a procurement officer, I have gained comprehensive knowledge of state procurement rules and regulations. This experience has afforded me a keen insight into ethical procurement practices and the importance of transparency and accountability in governmental operations.

Moreover, my work with a diverse array of governmental, tribal, state, local, and private agencies has honed my collaborative skills and enhanced my understanding of different organizational dynamics. I am adept at navigating complex inter-agency relationships and fostering cooperation to achieve common goals.

I am passionate about ethics and integrity, values that I consistently prioritize in all my professional and civic engagements. I am eager to bring this commitment to the Ethics Commission, ensuring that our community adheres to the highest standards of ethical conduct.

I am confident that my background, skills, and unwavering dedication to ethical principles make me a strong candidate for the Ethics Commissioner position. I am excited about the opportunity to contribute to the important work of the Ethics Commission and am ready to bring my expertise to this role. Thank you for considering my application. I look forward to the possibility of discussing my candidacy further.

Sincerely,
David Florez

Kenya mission - through the mission work in Kenya Africa, women and orphans are fed and cared for, but most importantly, they are given the Word of God and through the Word of God, they are given hope. SOHW operates an academy in Awasi, Kenya attended primarily by orphan children ranging in age from infancy to approximately 8 years old. Children that attend receive a free education as well as one free meal per day. SOHW also operates the Nyando Tailored in Love training center. During the twelve-month program, young people learn how to sew using a sewing machine, are trained in how to manage money, and learn how to run a business.

SOHW offers weekly bible study as we believe the Word of God is the foundation of life. Jesus Christ is the only hope for the world, and so through deep teaching of His word, we are able to teach and challenge women in their walk.

Employment History:

I have been employed continually since 1982

As a Salesman, Procurement Specialist, Manager, and business owner I have worked to supply Federal, tribal, state, local and private contractors with materials need to complete various new construction projects, weatherization, remodels. It was imperative to fully understand contracts, submittals, bid documents, Federal, State Purchasing rules in order to comply with all standards that were established.

1999 my employment changed from the private sector to a more public sector role. As a principal of a Christian school, I had to learn a new set of skills because I began working closely with State Education Department and local school districts

2007 I began my employment with the City of Farmington, as an employee for the Farmington Public Library, which I am still employed as an outreach coordinator. In my tenure as employee of a municipality there is an added need for transparency since the funds that are being expended are taxpayer's dollars and as a result have a greater requirement of scrutiny and accountability.

Greetings:

I write to express my interest in becoming a State Ethics Commissioner. For over 25 years, I committed my life's work to the service of the people of my local community and of the State of New Mexico; from 1995 through 2013, as an Assistant District Attorney, and from 2013 through 2020, as a District Court Judge. Since my retirement in 2020, I have looked for ways to continue that service, and believe the knowledge and experience I have gained throughout my career would be well suited to the position of State Ethics Commissioner. I look forward to an opportunity to further discuss what I have to offer.

Sincerely,

/s/ Raymond L. Romero

Ellis G. Vickers has been practicing law in New Mexico since 1982 and in Texas since 1983. He was a Recognized Specialist in Oil & Gas Law by the New Mexico Board of Legal Specialization until the New Mexico Supreme Court ended the specialization program in late 2018. Due to the depth and breadth of his experiences throughout his lengthy career, Ellis is very adept at oil and gas matters, business and real estate transactions, purchase and sale agreements and commercial transactions. He is also well versed in forming and advising corporations, limited liability companies, partnerships and other business entities.

Ellis began his career in private practice with the Midland-based law firm of Cotton, Bledsoe, Tighe & Dawson, PC, where he worked as an associate for three years. Over the next 16+ years, Ellis joined or formed several other law firms as president, director, shareholder, partner and attorney. During that time, he was widely published and presented papers to professional and business organizations on a broad range of oil and gas and business topics. He also contributed to the drafting of and revisions to New Mexico's corporate, business and LLC laws.

In 2002, Ellis accepted a position with an exploration and production company he had represented for over twelve years. As Senior Vice President and General Counsel, he helped take the company public in 2004 and spent the ensuing 12 plus years in the same capacity. His duties and responsibilities as a corporate officer included negotiating, documenting and managing transactions, agreements and contracts with third parties, as well as managing personnel and properties in New Mexico, Texas, Colorado, Wyoming, California and Pennsylvania. He has significant experience in securities and finance matters, as well as in mergers, acquisitions and divestitures.

In late 2017, Ellis returned to private practice. In addition to his law practice, Ellis consults with a variety of clients across the country in the areas of oil and gas, business and related matters.

When he is not working, Ellis enjoys boating, golf, water skiing, snow skiing and spending time with family and friends.
